ANSWER KEY

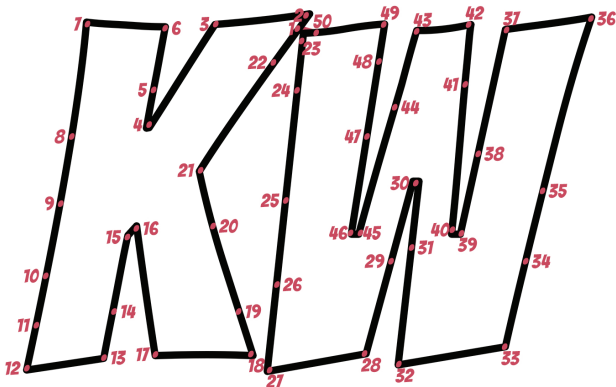

SILLY HISTORY (MAD LIBS) – REAL HISTORY

Kendall Whittier is known as Tulsa’s first suburban shopping district. Historic Route 66 came right through the neighborhood the late 1920s, and businesses popped up quickly. The district was named after two schools - Kendall Elementary School and Whittier Elementary School. Families would come to Kendall Whittier to shop and run errands. There was Elsie’s Dress Shop, Swinney’s Hardware Store, Ferguson Bakery and of course, Circle Theater. Today, Kendall Whittier is still a place to hang with friends. Come see for yourself, and we guarantee you’ll say, I ‘lub’ K-Dub!

About Kendall Whittier Main Street

KWMS – nestled in one of the most diverse neighborhoods in Tulsa – fulfills its mission to promote and restore Kendall Whittier as a thriving, walkable and welcoming community for living and working, by providing leadership and volunteer opportunities for all who want to participate in the district’s revitalization.

The 501(c)3 nonprofit organization started in 2010. Volunteers and staff rolled their sleeves up and got to work to transform the seedy “red light” district of Tulsa. We are one of 32 Main Street programs in the state of Oklahoma and have been named a two-time Great American Main Street Award Semi-finalist.
